DESCRIPTION

The Château de Ribebon Bordeaux Supérieur Réserve 2020 is a bold yet elegant red blend, primarily Merlot with Cabernet Sauvignon and Cabernet Franc. Deep garnet in color, it opens with aromas of ripe blackberry, plum, and blackcurrant, layered with notes of spice, cedar, and a touch of vanilla from oak aging. On the palate, it is rich and well-structured, offering smooth tannins, balanced acidity, and a long, refined finish. This wine pairs beautifully with roasted meats, duck, lamb, or aged cheeses.

EYE

Deep ruby-red with purple highlights, brilliant and dense, showing youth and concentration.

NOSE

Expressive and elegant, revealing aromas of black cherry, cassis, and plum, with hints of vanilla, toasted oak, and spice. Subtle earthy and tobacco notes add complexity.

MOUTH

Smooth and generous, with a velvety texture and fine-grained tannins. Flavors of ripe dark fruit, licorice, and cocoa unfold harmoniously, balanced by lively acidity. The finish is long and refined, with lingering notes of fruit and spice.

PAIRING

Perfect with roasted meats, grilled lamb, duck breast, or hearty stews. It also pairs beautifully with aged cheeses, mushroom dishes, or charcuterie — ideal for elegant dinners and relaxed evenings alike.

BORDEAUX

Bordeaux is the largest and possibly the most famous wine region in France marked by its rich history beginning in Roman times. Back in 1885, several Châteaux were classified into grand crus with five quality levels which still exist today. As a port town, its unique geography is built around the Garonne, Dordogne and Gironde rivers which have created its famous left bank (Medoc) and right banks (Pomerol and Saint-Émilion) and the Entre-Deux-Mers (between two "seas" or rivers) regions. 90% of Bordeaux wine is red with artful blending of cabernet sauvignon, merlot, cabernet franc and petit verdot and sometimes malbec. Wines showcase a full range of taste profiles from earthy with strong and dry tannins to softer and smoother with notes of plum, black fruits. There are the go to French wines with red meat dishes.
